MISSIONARY LINES ...

Are We Friendly?

October is an exciting month for our churches. Across the Tattnall-Evans Baptist Association, many churches will host fall festivals, trunk-or-treats, harvest celebrations, and other special events. These are wonderful opportunities to open our doors and invite our communities to come and fellowship with us.

But there is an important question we need to ask ourselves:

Are we ready for the visitors who come through our doors?

Being ready means more than having enough candy, food, games, and activities. It means preparing our hearts to welcome people who may not look like us, dress like us, act like us, or know the “way things are done” in our church.

I once heard a story about a wife who had been inviting her husband to church for years. Finally, one Sunday, he agreed to go. She was thrilled! She hoped this might be the beginning of something wonderful in his life.

As they sat in church, his cell phone accidentally went off. He quickly turned it off, embarrassed and apologetic. But instead of receiving grace, he heard comments from people around him about how disrespectful and inappropriate it was. He left that church feeling embarrassed and unwelcome. Later that afternoon, he went to a local bar. While he was there, he accidentally spilled his beer. Instead of criticizing him or making him feel uncomfortable, someone simply laughed, helped clean it up, and welcomed him.

The point of the story is not that the bar was a better place than the church. The point is that people often return to places where they feel welcomed. That ought to make every one of us stop and think.

Our churches should be among the friendliest places in our communities. When someone walks through our doors, they should experience the love of Christ before they ever hear the words of a sermon.

As we prepare for October festivals and special events, let's ask ourselves:

Will a first-time guest even be noticed?

Will someone greet them warmly?

Will we make room for them?

Will we help them know where to go?

Will we introduce ourselves and learn their name?

Will we show them the grace we have received from Jesus?

(Cont.)

James 2:1 reminds us, “My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality.”

Our fall events may be the first contact someone has with our church. A family may come because their children want to play games. A neighbor may come because someone invited them. A person who has never attended church may simply be curious. These people may not look like us or act like us, but will they feel welcome?

Let's be ready.

Let's make our churches places where people are welcomed, loved, and pointed to Jesus. We don't know what burden someone may be carrying or how much courage it took for them to walk through our doors.

This October let's not simply have friendly events. Let's make sure we have friendly churches.

Are we friendly?

I pray the answer will be a resounding YES!

Remember two important dates: Choir-Fest is Sunday, Oct. 11 at 5:00 at Elza.

The Annual Meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 22 at 7:00 at First Glennville;
Dr. John Waters will be the guest speaker.

Women With a Heart for God's Work

Happy Fall, everyone! It is a busy season. But we still have important dates ahead.

I know that it's hard to believe, but it will be Christmas before we know it, and it will soon be time to begin participating in the annual Lottie Moon Christmas offering. What better way to help keep missionaries on the mission field?

The Annual TEBA Women's Ministry Inspirational Banquet held on Thursday, September 17, at Cobbtown was an enormous success. Guest Speaker: WMU President Pam Murphy did an outstanding job encouraging everyone about being "Made for the Mission." We had the opportunity to make Hope bracelets, then we were challenged to go back to our churches and find a group to do the same with those that the Lord has placed in our churches' women's ministries.

Thank you to everyone participating in "a little change, changes lives." So many have already brought in their change to the Associational Office, and we have collected just over $20,000.00. I can never say thank you enough. It is wonderful to see how the Lord is being honored. Let's keep up the hard work. This can be an ongoing event that we can celebrate each year at the Inspirational Banquet. Everyone, regardless of age, can participate in our churches. Fundraising bottles are available at the TEBA Office. If you have any questions, please contact the Association Office.

Please remember to share that the new name for our TEBA Women's Ministry theme at the Association is:

"TEBA-Together Encouraging Believers in Action." 1 Thes 5:11

“Health Notes”

Dear Friends and Family,

October is here and Praise God for the change of seasons.... A reminder that God is in control! The change of seasons also brings colds and flu season. Just a reminder to practice good handwashing and drinking at least 6-8 8-ounce glasses of water daily. Stay hydrated and cover your coughs. Also, check on your neighbors and make sure they are doing well. Sometimes, we may need to offer to pick up some medicine or items from the grocery store. This is a simple act that shows the love you have for your neighbor.

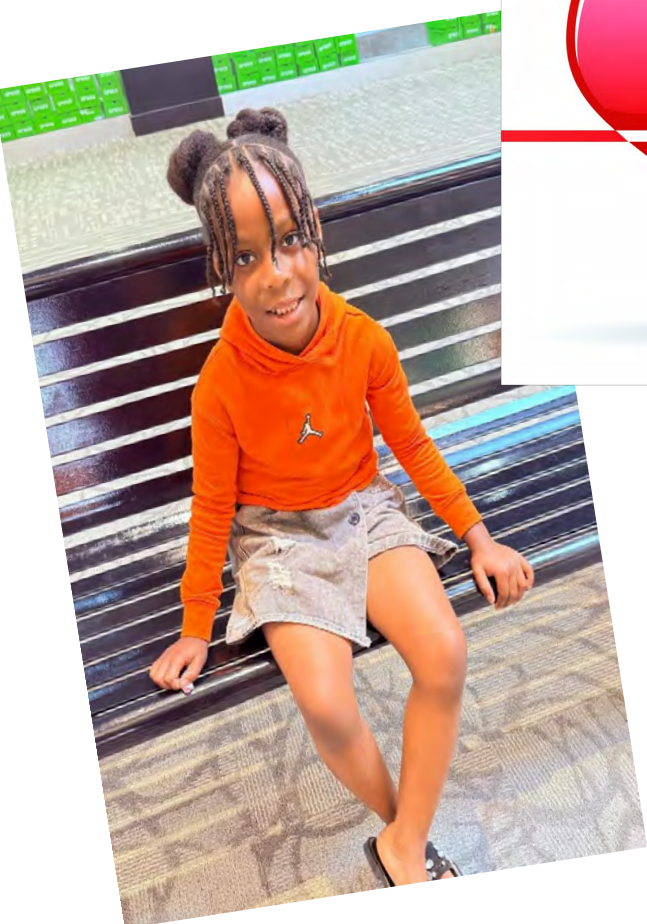

Good Health Ministries continues to accept new patients each week. This allows our volunteers the opportunity to pray with patients and help with paperwork, computer skills and mostly just offer a listening ear. Some people just need to be given the opportunity to be heard and seen. We offer biblical guidance on what Jesus would do and in turn that gives hope!

Heartbeat Pregnancy Resource Center continues to serve families in our communities. It's exciting to see how God is moving! We currently have 11 moms doing online classes and they will videochat our advocates a couple times a month. This allows flexibility for working moms or those that may not have transportation. Our advocates guide families on parenting and they read God's word together and pray together. Families are building points to use for baby items. A few items we need are infant bath centers/tubs, crib sheets, crib mattresses and a toddler bed.

Until we meet again, I leave you with Deuteronomy 31:8: "The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged".

May your October abound with Blessings ~

Wendy West

Men on Mission For God
Association-Wide Men's Ministry Update

Greetings
To All Men of The Tattnall-Evans
Baptist Association

October is here and will be terribly busy for the men of the Association.

We have a ramp-build on October 10th in Claxton at 503 N. Broad Street. Come out and join us as we do service for our Lord and a person who needs a ramp.

The Association Fishing rodeo will be on October 31st starting at 8 am at Bro. Keith Harvey's home in Cobbtown. Looking forward to seeing all the families that come out for this event to catch fish and have fun. I just want to encourage all the men of the association to come out and bring your children or grandchildren and make great memories.

The Men's Ministry Fish Fry and Fellowship will be on November 7th at 5 pm at Collins First Baptist Church. Men and Young Men come out for a time of fellowship and tasty food. The men and women of Collins First Baptist Church do an excellent job. The prizes are good too.

We have some more ramp builds coming up and will get out those dates and places as soon as they are set.

I know we are going into the busy season for churches with Fall Festivals, Choir Fest, Annual TEBA Meeting, Thanksgiving, Backpack Give Aways, Christmas and then New Years. Let us keep our eyes on Jesus as we go through this busy time.

Your Brother in Christ
Bro. Murray

Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus, the [a] author and [b] finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Elza Baptist Church

Just a few weeks ago I had the pleasure of returning to one of the churches I served for ten years near Phoenix, AZ. First Baptist Church of Tempe flew me and my wife Carole out to sing a concert for their monthly senior adult luncheon. We had such a marvelous time seeing around 150 dear friends we ministered to and served alongside for those ten years. When one serves and leads worship for that many years with a congregation, the bonds that form last forever, and to be able to hug their necks, share fellowship around the lunch table, and catch up with so many was precious. That congregation made a difference in my life.

I chose to sing a lot of the songs that I had sung in previous programs for the seniors, fund raiser events, youth choir songs, and even some songs from musicals that we had done during my ten-year tenure there. In the concert I chose to sing one of my favorite songs, “The Old Rugged Cross Made the Difference” by Gloria and Bill Gaither. I ended my concert with that beloved Gaither Vocal Band song, and it is our Spotlight song for this month.

Written in 1970, it reflects on themes of redemption and the transformative power of faith. The inspiration for the song came from the story of Bill Gaither's grandfather, Grover, who was known for his positive impact on others, and his life story serves as a backdrop to the song's message about the significance of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.

The lyrics tell the story of Grover's transformation from a man without hope who was changed by the nail-scarred hand of Jesus, a home once filled with anger that became loving, and a believer's death that becomes rejoicing. The song emphasizes that the cross brings hope, love, and victory over death. It echoes the biblical truth of redemption through Christ's sacrifice.

The song has always resonated deeply with me, and to many listeners who find great solace in its message. It has become a staple in Christian music, especially in the world of Southern Gospel, and is often performed in worship settings, concerts, and conferences, highlighting the emotional and spiritual connection many have with its lyrics. I encourage you to find a recording of this wonderful Gaither treasure, “The Old Rugged Cross Made the Difference” and let the cross of Jesus make a difference in your life today.

Your servant in Christ, Phillip Shepherd

HELP WANTED

Youth Leader / Music

Part-Time/ Bi-Vocational

Living Hope Baptist Church is seeking an individual to fill the position of youth leader/ music person.

This is a part-time/Bi-vocational position. We are currently willing to pay $1,000-1,200 a month. Ideally, they would be married with school-age children, but it is not necessary.

The main responsibility would be developing our youth ministries.

If anyone is interested, they may contact me at 912-278-9591 or email me a resume at josephbrock3@gmail.com.
